5. TEACHING QUALITY

---

My highest scores of Student Feedback for Teaching and Learning (SFTL) for the courses taught in the past five year are largely close to Departmental average and constantly above university averages. Examples of anonymous comments on SFTL record:

Course (Teacher Effectiveness /Course Effectiveness)

Example Feedback

SOWK 2084

Theoretical Foundations in Social Policy and Planning (87.5/89.3)

- Very interactive class with numerous discussions among Professor Huang and students. He is very helpful and patient to answer questions from students. Overall is very good.
- The course contains lots of knowledge and very useful!

SOWK 6003

Social Research Methods (77.1/70)

- Those research on social sciences which I enrolled previously was mainly focus on statistical analysing methods. This course further enhanced my understanding on the fundamental ground knowledge, theories about study design, e.g. quasi experimental design, different types of measurement levels. Besides, the course teacher gave my presentation group sufficient supports and comments to enhance content presentation content and glad that we achieved satisfactory performance at the end.
- The lecturer taught with great passion and deploy updated, interesting learning materials in teaching.

SOWK 6310

Psychosocial Aspects in Mental Health Care (78.6/73.8)

- Dr Huang prepared many teaching materials for the lesson and provided a world-wide angle for us to understand the mental health issues.
- In the past, I understood clients base on their own situations in a micro way. This course helps me to understand more the difficulties of the clients in a macro lens, such as psycho-social, economic, culture, services provide, policy and advocacy

Research Methods in Social Work
and Social Administration
(79.2/71.9)

- Very supportive throughout the course, show high level of understanding of individual concerns and difficulties, always provide timely feedback and very devoted in sharing his knowledge
- Clear and structured approach to understand the rationale, design and implementation of social work research

SOWK 2015
Research Methods in Social Work
Practice (63/77.3)

- He really tries his very best to engage the class and be able to teach in a precise and concise way I can follow his lecture easily n thank him a lot for replying to tons of our emails during the holiday
- Very interesting! Glad to have the opportunity to learn about doing research
